

DC Farm to School Approved Rubric for Experiential Learning

Contact Information
	Name
	Contact
	Title/Position
	Email
	Phone

Operational Criteria	Scoring Criteria	Score	Recommendations/Notes
Cancellation policy available with refund	0 = No
	1 = Yes
Advertising sheet and/or webpage available for teachers about program	0 = No
	1 = Yes
Educational Criteria	Scoring Criteria	Score	Recommendations/Notes
Rules and expectations are clearly stated to students at the start of the lesson	0 = No rules established
	1 = Rules are told to students at the start
Students are actively engaged in hands-on learning	0 = No hands-on engagement
	1 = 1 type of engagement
	2 = 2 types of engagement
	3 = 3 types of engagement
Students are exposed to a variety of plants and/or animals	0 = No plants or animals introduced
	2 = 1-5 varieties of plants and/or 1 animal species introduced 4 = 6 or more varieties of plants and/or 2 animal species introduced
The program is rooted in DC educational standards *DC Greens is happy to assist you in linking your program to standards	0 = No
	1 = Yes, but standards are not provided for teachers
	3 = Yes, standards are provided for teachers prior to the lesson

Clear connections are made between lesson and the larger food system (ie. food production/consumption, food waste, food justice, etc. covered)	0 = None
	2 = Food system topic(s) mentioned
	3 = Food system topic(s) discussed
	4 = Food system topic(s) integral to lesson
Organization has several lessons, providing opportunities for repeat visits	0 = Only one lesson, no opportunities for repeat visits
	1 = Multiple lessons, opportunities provided for repeat visits
Teachers are provided with lessons to do with the students before and after the field trip	0 = No lessons distributed to teachers
	2 = Pre and/or post lessons distributed
TOTAL SCORE		0
A score of 15 or above (75%) is considered passing for your site to receive a DC Farm to School "Stamp of Approval"		/20

Additional Information These questions do not affect your score.

Please answer the following questions to the best of your ability.

Availability
Length of lesson
Cost
Grade levels you work with
Student:Teacher Supervisor ratio requested
What is the dress code?
Where does your lesson take place? (Classroom, parking lot, field, etc.)	